Mona Cavanah, [1906]
Balsillie Collection of Roy Studio Images
Film Negative 2000-012-002618-1

The Balsillie Collection of Roy Studio Images is recognized for capturing all aspects of life in the Peterborough region.

Mona Cavanah (1886 - 1965) was born in Medicine Hat, Alberta. She married Frederick Lewis Roy in 1907 (son of Roy Studio founder, Robert Maitland Roy).

Locally, Mona was a member of the Peterborough Golf and Country Club and St. John's Anglican Church.

Mona often worked in the Roy Studio office, first with her husband and later with her son, Robert "Sonny" Roy, who became the final Roy to operate the family business.
