

Peterborough Museum & Archives
 Located in beautiful Ashburnham Memorial Park
 Museum Drive at 300 Hunter Street East
 Peterborough, Ontario

Escape from the classroom in June!

Primary:

The Early Settlement of Peterborough

First Nations, an ocean voyage, a log shanty and toys!

$4.00

Junior:

Peterborough: A History Mystery

The adventure begins with a map to your very own treasure chest!

$4.00

and

Digging up the Dirt

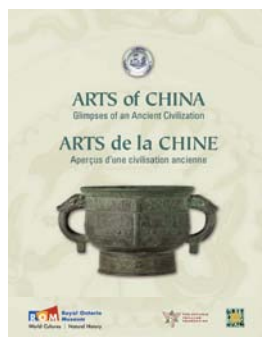

A real archaeological dig for artifacts from Peterborough's past.

$4.00

For more information see:

http://www.peterboroughmuseumandarchives.ca/programs_schoolsgroups.htm

To book a program email: moconnor@peterborough.ca or call 705.743.5180 ext.2475

COMING THIS FALL for Grade 5:

Arts of China: Glimpses of an Ancient Civilization

Book now for September through December 2011

Peterborough Museum & Archives' education programs provide hands-on, child-centred learning experiences . . . opportunities to explore, discover, immerse, imagine, and connect. All programs are designed to meet Ontario Curriculum learning outcomes and to appeal to multiple intelligences.