FROM: Erik Hanson, Heritage Resources Coordinator

MEETING DATE: May 11, 2010

SUBJECT: Report PACAC10-016
Wellington Loyal Orange Lodge No.457

PURPOSE

A report to update the PACAC on the status of the heritage evaluation of 3595 Nassau Mills Rd.

RECOMMENDATION

That the PACAC approve Report PACAC10-016, dated May 11, 2010, of the Heritage Resources Coordinator, as follows:

That the report be received for information.

BUDGET AND FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no budget or financial implications associated with the recommendation.

BACKGROUND

The PACAC recommended that the building at 3595 Nassau Mills Road be evaluated and a report be prepared and presented to the Designation Sub-Committee to determine its heritage value. The Designation Sub-Committee was asked to return to PACAC this month with a recommendation. The building has been evaluated using PACAC's standard evaluation procedure and before historical marks, scores below the minimum level of 55 to be eligible for designation. The historic research is underway but is not complete and it is not possible to attribute historic marks yet. As such there is not yet sufficient material available to the designation sub-committee to make an informed decision. The HPO is in the process of arranging a site visit to inspect the interior of the building. A final report will be provided to the designation sub-committee as soon as it is complete.
