BACKGROUND

Two years ago the HPO submitted a report to Committee of the Whole recommending that an inventory of properties evaluated for their cultural and historic value, become the City's Register of Eligible properties as provided for under the Ontario Heritage Act. Council expressed concern that residents were not being given opportunity to comment on the proposal. The HPO was directed to advertise in the newspaper of the City's interest in creating the Register. The HPO did so and two comments were received. One was from a lawyer interested in knowing the impact of the Register on properties currently for sale. The other was from the Real Estate Board which misunderstood the proposal and indicated that they opposed the heritage designation of nearly 1700 properties. No further action has been taken since the comments were received.
