Art Gallery of Peterborough

Upcoming Exhibitions

David Campion and Sandra Shields

Produced and circulated by The Reach Gallery Museum Abbotsford

Curated by Laura Schneider

Opening Reception

Saturday, April 13, 2019 from 2-4 p.m.

Grand Theft Terra Firma tackles settler responsibility head-on. David Campion and Sandra Shields disrupt the celebratory mythology of nation building by reframing the settlement of the Canada as a complex heist masterminded by criminals in London and played out on the ground by a gang of greedy thieves. Combining photography and installation, and developed in collaboration with many partners from Stó:lō community, Grand Theft blends popular culture with original source material to consider Canada's colonial history within the particularities of local experiences in S'olh Temexw, now more commonly known as BC's Fraser Valley.

Nicole Bauberger: Get There From Here

Opening Reception

Saturday, April 13, 2019 from 2 – 4 p.m.

Nicole Bauberger lives and works in Whitehorse, Yukon – when not on the road – and has exhibited her work in solo and group exhibitions in the Yukon, the Northwest Territories, Alberta, Ontario and Quebec. Her work resides in public collections across Canada and in many private collections across Canada, the US, Europe and Australia. With a BA from Trent University, Peterborough, ON, Bauberger has received training in fine art and art history from the Ontario College of Art + Design and Athabasca University, through an apprenticeship with Ontario painter David Bierk, and through a Northern Residents' Research Award from the Association of Canadian Universities for Northern Studies.
