Background

The City of Peterborough Municipal Culture Plan (MCP) was adopted by City Council on April 23, 2012. In doing so, Council has recognized the important role that the City's cultural assets play in building Peterborough's future prosperity.

The final outcome of the planning process for the MCP was the development of Seven Strategic Directions that seek to promote culture both within the municipality and community; identify existing and needed resources to build cultural capacity; explore collaborative frameworks and partnerships; and integrate a “cultural lens” into the different areas of the City’s processes and city-building activities.

The ACHAC committee began this discussion in 2019 and decided the Public Art Policy and Procedures, Municipal Cultural Plan Review and future plans were the ideas generated from the initial discussion. The committee would like to establish objectives and goals for the remainder of 2020 and 2021 season.
