Background

Section 223.3(1) of the Municipal Act requires a municipality to appoint an Integrity Commissioner who reports to council and who is responsible for performing in an independent manner the functions assigned by the municipality which include the application of the Code of Conduct for members of council. Guy Giorno was appointed as the Integrity Commissioner assigned to the investigative, reporting and, as applicable, inquiry functions outlined in clauses 223.3(1)1, 2 and 3 of the Municipal Act 2001, S.O. 2001, c. 25.

Section 31 of the Code of Conduct indicates, “A person who believes that a Member has contravened any provision of this Code of Conduct may give to the Integrity Commissioner the person’s complaint which must be in writing and must set out the particulars of the alleged contravention”. On March 2, 2021 Integrity Commissioner Giorno received a complaint under Section 10 of the Code of Conduct entitled Conduct Respecting Others and commenced an investigation.

Municipal Act section 223.6 (3) entitled Publication of Reports directs that, “The municipality and each local board shall ensure that reports received from the Commissioner by the municipality or by the board, as the case may be, are made available to the public”. The Report on Complaint from Integrity Commissioner Giorno, Clancy v. Therrien, 2021 ONMIC12, dated July 6, 2021, attached as Appendix A to this report, outlines the nature of the complaint and the findings of the investigation.
