The Interim Culture Council met May 8, 2012 to begin the process of framing the mission, mandate and composition of the new organization. At that time several ad-hoc committees were formed to explore areas of information deemed important for moving forward. These included: Refining the mission statement; surveying organizations whose structure may work as a model for the Culture Council; gathering information on incorporation; and, exploring outside granting agencies and their requirements for funding. The ad-hoc sub-committee will meet on June 5, 2012. A summary of their findings will be distributed at the meeting.
