BACKGROUND

On March 4, 2013 The Planning Division presented a report to Council on the Official Plan (OP) update process. The report outlined the input from nearly two years of consultations with staff and the public and recommended next steps for updating the OP.

In an update report presented in April 2012, the Planning Division had noted that key values or recommendations from ongoing or recently completed City strategic plans, including the Municipal Cultural Plan (MCP), should be reflected in the OP review. Based on that recommendation, the ACHAC decided to develop input for the OP review process in order to facilitate plan alignment between the OP and the MCP. ACH staff prepared a comprehensive review of the strategic directions and initiatives drafted by the Planning Division based on its public consultations for the OP update. Using this material, a facilitated workshop was conducted at the November 2012 ACHAC meeting to generate formal comments for submission to the Planning Division.

Brad Appleby, Planner of Subdivision Control and Special Projects will provide the ACHAC with an update on how the ACHAC submission is being incorporated into the OP review and how the process will proceed based on the March 4, 2013 presentation to Council.
